BATH

Raashid is the founder of Jigsaw Thinking and a Business Coach. He has worked with 300+ entrepreneurs and their business adventures. Raashid's unique expertise and learnings come from Business School in the UK, strategic consulting at Accenture (London) and launching his very own social enterprise, I For Indya. He took these experiences to propel himself towards his one true passion: entrepreneurship, and used them to build, launch and grow Jigsaw Thinking for individuals who are curious and committed to the entrepreneurial adventure.
