WHAT ? EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION IN 21ST CENTURY

Communication, Critical Thinking, Creativity, and Collaboration are key 21st Century learner skills.

We work with the belief that these skills can be learned. It is not a talent but an acquired skill to be an effective communicator, who can connect and reach out to their audience.

This course is designed to make these skills easy to achieve and attainable goals for anyone. It will equip you with Communication Skills that are key to individual and group achievement in education and the workplace.

Effective Communication skills are an indicator of good leadership abilities, strong interpersonal skills, and problem-solving abilities. These are real-world competencies that any educational institute or employer looks for.

HOW ? WILL YOU LEARN

This course is designed to be interactive, physically engaging, and practical using Drama based activities, group discussions, collaborative planning, and presentation time.

Each module will run over two days. The first section of each module will consist of group-based exercises, building vocabulary for the module and equipping everyone with tools for the Creation and Presentation tasks. Each module will end in presentations made by the groups.

DEATILS OF MODULES

MODULE #1

Interactivity and Personal Presence

This module works with the ideas of losing inhibitions and quick and creative thinking to be an impactful communicator.

Using the Drama Tool of Improvisation to get you physically tuned in, be aware and present at the moment, and connect with your audience expressively and innovatively.

In smaller groups, you will then collaborate to create a performance applying the tools that were shared.

WHY ?

TESTIMONIAL

Gurleen, Grade 11, American Embassy School

Shaizia was really very expressive, especially in the storytelling part. Really liked how she was focusing on expressions. Most people tend to hide their feelings but I learned from this session that being expressive is really important and not that hard. Thank you so much!

Utkarsh, Grade 9, Dhirubhai Ambani International School

Shaizia ma'am's way of explaining everything was so wonderful. She made us do certain tasks with such ease unlike if it would have been from any other mentor. Thinking about objects as a metaphor was a very different and enriching activity.

Ayush, Grade 9, Singapore International School

I found Shaizia very connected. The best part about her was wherever she was using some words which could have been difficult for some of us to understand, she made them easier so that everyone could connect to her. The positivity in the whole session was so amazing. The smiles on people's faces during the entire session made us feel more motivated.

You will be provided with a certificate of participation by The Big Red Group and Theatre Professionals Education. This certificate can be used for your college portfolio.
