

Mentors Bio

Learn with mentors from

Jonada Shukarasi

Concentration : Government

Jonada is a rising sophomore in Eliot House from Albania. She is concentrating in Government with a focus on conflict in the Eastern Europe and Central Asia region. On campus, Jonada has been involved with Model UN and the Harvard Albanian Students Association. She is currently on a gap year and hopes to learn Russian and become part of Harvard Women in Law next fall. She is passionate about women's rights and educational equity and in her spare time she loves to read, journal, and travel.

Mateo Velarde

Concentration : Computer Science, Government, & Theatre

Mateo is a junior at Leverett House from Virginia, United States. At Harvard, he is pursuing a joint concentration in Computer Science and Government with a secondary in Theatre. On campus, he has been involved with Harvard Primus, Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers, Leadership Institute at Harvard College, Harvard Undergraduate Admissions Council, Act on a Dream, Harvard College Interfaith Forum, Harvard MIT Math Tournament, Harvard Gaming Group, and the Harvard Institute of Politics. He wishes to spread awareness of pertinent and enriching principles for college by guiding and mentoring prospective students. In his free time, he enjoys hanging out with friends, mountain biking, watching anime, tinkering with tech, and playing board games with family.

Ashley Redhead

Concentration : Electrical Engineering

Ashley is a sophomore in Eliot House from Washington D.C. His academic focus lies in Electrical Engineering, fueled by an avid interest in the intersection of A.I. and consumer electronics. Alongside his studies, Ashley actively contributes to campus life. He's a key player on the Men's Club Volleyball Team and an associate at Harvard College Consulting Group. Additionally, he's an engaged member of the Generational African American Students Association and the Black Student Association. Ashley aspires to impact younger students by emphasizing the power of planning and having a clear vision for success. He believes that a road map, coupled with determination, paves the way for boundless achievement. In his spare time, he enjoys thrifting, watching movies with friends, and playing volleyball.

Edona Cosovic

Concentration : Government

Edona is a junior in Eliot House from New York City. She's concentrating in Government with a secondary in Economics. On campus, she's Co-President of the Harvard Undergraduate Albanian Students Association, Senior Director of the Harvard Undergraduate Foreign Policy Initiative, Socials Director of the PBHA Small Claims Advisory Service, SEAS Administration Senior Staff Writer, and member of the Harvard College Debating Union. She hopes to positively impact younger students through such a formative period of their educational career. Through being apart of the taeching team, she hopes to express how valuable leadership and education is. In her spare time, she enjoys reading a good book, meeting new people, and trying out new restaurants!

Namira Mehedi

Concentration : Chemistry

Namira is a junior in Winthrop House from New York City, USA. Academically she is concentrating in Chemistry and secondary in Sociology and has a passion for medicine. On campus, she is the president of the Bengali Association of Students at Harvard College, director of Indigo Peer Counseling, treasurer of Harvard Menstrual Equity Coalition, and external relations chair for PRIMUS, an organization for first-generation students. She hopes to make a difference in the lives of the younger students at such an important time in their lives. She is passionate about teaching them social and leadership skills that are crucial in shaping them to be who they are. In her spare time, she enjoys exploring new places in the city and watching movies with her friends and family.

Namira Mehedi

Concentration : Government

Donia just graduated from Harvard in May 2023 with a concentration in Government + Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations and a secondary in Economics. She is now working full-time at Microsoft in a business role. At Harvard she was involved in Model United Nations and served in various roles including being secretary-general of one of the conferences. She was also involved with a teaching program where she taught once a week at a local high school and loved interacting with the students. In her free time she enjoys playing tennis and trying new recipes.