

Crisis Committee

First Punic War. Topic: Carthage and Hannibal wage war against Rome and her generals. Who will emerge victorious?

Blurb: Welcome to the heart of one of history's most pivotal conflicts – the First Punic War. In this intense crisis committee, participants will dive into the strategic and political turmoil of the ancient Mediterranean world, where Carthage, led by the formidable Hannibal, faces off against the might of Rome and her generals. As members of this committee, you will be tasked with crafting intricate political and military strategies to secure the dominance of your faction. Will you lead Carthage to unprecedented glory, or will you ensure Rome's supremacy endures through the ages? The fate of empires lies in your hands. Prepare for a dynamic and challenging experience where your decisions will shape the course of history.

