"ILMUN was truly a rollercoaster journey for me, filled with exhilarating debates, unexpected crises, and unforgettable memories. A must-try experience!"

A LETTER FROM THE SECRETARY GENERAL:

Dear Delegates,

It is my privilege to welcome you all to ILMUNC India 3.0. At this conference you will be given the unique opportunity to engage with students who take positions completely different from your own, while simultaneously working towards similar end goals. It's in that seemingly contradictory space where the greatest amount of learning and progress occur. Model UN is not just about finding solutions to some of the world's most challenging problems: it's about forging meaningful connections with peers whom you may not have otherwise had the opportunity to meet. It's my job as Secretary-General to ensure that this conference is a success. With that in mind, I need your help to make that success a reality. Regardless of the position you have, or the committee you're in, success of this conference is defined by real learning and real connection. You all have the individual responsibility to take the first step towards building that foundation.

ILMUNC is a global organization, hosting conferences in Philadelphia, Dubai, China, Vietnam, Peru, and of course, India. While this may just be one conference, it's your gateway into the broader ILMUNC network. I am deeply thankful for the diligence and dedication of this year's Secretariat, and equally grateful to our host, Chitkara University, Chandigarh for graciously hosting ILMUNC India 2027.

As you prepare for this conference, I hope you remain true to the values of diplomacy, teamwork, leadership, and learning. Your experience at ILMUNC is far more than any award could represent, because your time as a delegate at this conference equips you with the skills necessary to begin your journey as a leader of tomorrow, today.

I look forward to welcoming you to ILMUNC India 3.0.

Sincerely,
Matthew Barotz,
Secretary-General, ILMUNC India 3.0

Committees & Agenda

ILMUNC India 3.0 features a diverse range of committees designed to challenge delegates across varying levels of experience and interest areas. From traditional UN bodies to specialised and crisis committees, each forum engages participants in dynamic, policy-driven debate.

The agendas explore pressing global issues spanning geopolitical tensions, economic development, human rights, and technological governance. Delegates are expected to research thoroughly, collaborate effectively, and think critically as they draft resolutions, negotiate with peers, and work toward innovative and sustainable solutions to real-world problems.

ACCOMMODATION & MEALS INFORMATION

Residential Students:

- All meals will be provided by us for students.
- ILMUNC India 3.0 provides nutritious, hygienically prepared meals throughout the conference.
- If students wish to eat beyond the provided meals, there are multiple cafés and restaurants across the campus that they can access.

Accommodation Details

- Chitkara University offers secure, hygienic, and comfortable hostels in separate buildings for boys and girls.
- Students will share rooms in groups of 3 to 4, fostering camaraderie and collaboration—core components of any impactful youth leadership program.
- Delegates will be grouped based on committee assignments. This thoughtful arrangement promotes shared learning, peer support, and efficient preparation—ideal for a model united nations program structure.
- While room assignments are primarily based on committees and logistics, we strive to accommodate school groupings wherever feasible. Flexibility is built into this youth leadership development program to enhance comfort.
- Trained wardens and support staff are stationed 24/7 in both girls' and boys' hostels. They ensure delegates participating in this leadership training for student leaders feel safe, guided, and well cared for.

FAQs

Delegation Size

- Schools may register delegations of 10 or more students. If a school is interested in sending a larger group, we would be happy to accommodate them, subject to committee availability. Typically, the maximum participation from one school is around 50–60 students.

Teacher Chaperones

- We recommend one teacher chaperone for every 12–15 students. Accommodation and meals for chaperones are complementry.

Travel Logistics

- Delegations are expected to arrange their own travel to the conference venue in Chandigarh. However, our team will be happy to share recommended travel guidance and assist with coordination if required.
